

STUDIO M2R
atelier d'architettura

CASALGRANDE HOTEL

2008 – SALVATERRA
(casalgrande) REGGIO EMILIA

www.emmedueerre.com

The project combines sustainable environmental strategies in a strong architectural language achieved through the use of very contemporary materials, the reinforced colored concrete and the cor-ten steel.

Special attention was paid on studying the decorative features, which are characterized by basis lines and made of wengè wood.

